Who We Are What We Do

The Wareham Land Trust is the premier conservation organization in the Town of Wareham. We promote land protection, natural resource education, and smart growth.

Through a variety of well established conservation methods we safeguard valuable land and water resources.

The passion we feel for our mission is reflected in the educational forums we sponsor about local wildlife and the environment.

We cultivate a sense of pride in Wareham's natural heritage to preserve the quality of life for generations to come.

Since our inception in 2001, Wareham's protected open space has increased from 4% to 16% of the town's total area.

The cost of town services for residential development exceeds tax revenue in towns like Wareham, whereas protected open space has a positive economic benefit.

We protect nearly 600 acres, most of which are open to the public for hiking, boating, dog walking, bird watching, and enjoying the outdoors.

Become a member and support our cause.
